ABOUT ELIGIBILITY

Q: Am I eligible for a scholarship award?

A: Each scholarship has its own eligibility requirements, so it is crucial to read the scholarship descriptions and requirements very carefully. Do not apply unless you meet ALL eligibility criteria.

Some scholarships are specific to a region, county, high school, or fields of study. Some may also be dependent on your graduation year or year postsecondary status. Only apply for a scholarship if you meet all eligibility criteria.

Q: When reading eligibility criteria, what does “financial need” mean?

A: “Financial need” means that you may be experiencing barriers to pursuing postsecondary education due to your or your family’s financial circumstances.

Financial Need as defined by the US Department of Education’s Office of Federal Student Aid:

“Financial need is the difference between the cost of attendance (COA) at a school and your Student Aid Index (SAI). While COA varies from school to school, your SAI does not change based on the school you attend.”

<https://studentaid.gov/help-center/answers/article/what-does-financial-need-mean>

About Multiple Applications

Q: Can I submit more than one application for the same scholarship?

A: No. You can only submit one application for each scholarship opportunity per scholarship round. However, if eligible, you are welcome to re-apply for the same scholarship in future application rounds.

If there is an error in your application, do not complete a new application. Please contact FAO at 740-300-0735 or Scholarships@ffao.org for assistance.*

Q: Which application should I submit?

A: Some scholarship opportunities have their own applications while other applications, like the FAO General Application, are for multiple opportunities. You are welcome to complete an application for any scholarship(s) you are eligible for. In addition to reviewing Scholarships Opportunities on FAO’s website, be sure to search in the portal when you are logged in to see what other scholarships you may be eligible for.
